DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-30, drawn to a method of making a phosphorous article, classified in class 427, subclass 64.
 - II. Claims 31-37, drawn to a phosphor article, classified in class 428, subclass 426.
 - III. Claims 38-47, drawn to a system for binding phosphor particles to a substrate, classified in class 118, subclass 620.
2. Inventions Group I and Group II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process. The specification discloses that more than one process exists for applying the binder solution to the faceplate (page 3, lines 13-18). A materially different process which may be used to produce the product claimed comprises the method claimed by the applicant, but instead of submerging the substrate into a binder solution one may spray coat or use the "spinning method" to produce the claimed article.
3. Inventions Group III and Group II are related as apparatus and product made. The inventions in this relationship are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the apparatus as claimed is not an obvious apparatus for making the product and the apparatus can be used for making a different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus (MPEP § 806.05(g)). In this case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus. A materially different apparatus which may be used to produce the product claimed comprises the apparatus claimed by the applicant, but instead of submerging the substrate into a binder solution one may spray coat or use the "spinning method" to produce the claimed article.

4. Inventions Group I and Group III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand. The process comprises applying phosphor particles to a substrate and the apparatus comprises submerging the substrate in a bath containing a non-aqueous solution with phosphor particles dispensed therein. It is well known that many alternative methods may be used to apply phosphor particles to a substrate, such as CVD or spray coating.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to George Oehling on 12/17/2001 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
